

ENGLISH GRAMMER

STD 7

*Learners Book with answers

*Grammar

Compiled & written by M.Bambi

0995 910 418

About this book:

1. It has provided answers to all grammar exercise in both standard 7 and 8
2. The book will help the teacher when marking learners work
3. The learner will use this book to check for correct answers
4. The teacher Must always refer to English grammer for PSLCE (written by same author) or other English grammer books suitable for PSLCE
5. The book also covers maneb syllabus

REFERENCE:

-ENGLISH LEARNERS BOOK FOR STANDARD 7 AND 8

-ARISE WITH PRACTICAL ENGLISH GRAMMER

-ENGLISH GRAMMER IN USE- RAYMOND MULPHY

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE BOOK CALL:

0999 21 22 45- Jeke(kantchito Primary School-Bembeke)

Typed and Printed @Rejoice Printing

Dedza (0995 910 418

STANDARD 7 WORK

Excise E –completing a passage. (learners book page 4)

The exercise is about (SUBJECT VERB AGREEMENT TOPIC)

Mr and Mrs Limbikani lives in kamwna village.

Mr Limbikani is a businessman.

Mrs Limbikani is a teacher at kolowilo school

Both Mr and Mrs Limbikani work hard

Everyday Mr and Mrs Limbikani go to work.

Mr Limbikani sells things in his shop. Mrs Limbikani teaches children at kolowilo school. In the evening Mr and Mrs Limbikani come home.

Every evening Mr Limbikani counts the money he makes from the shop. Mrs Limbikani prepares work to teach the following day. Sometimes Mrs Limbikani helps her children do homework. When Mrs Limbikani is helping the children, Mr Limbikani cooks food for the family.

EXERCISE E -QUESTION TAGS (Learners book page 9 & 10)

Copy and complete the statements below with an appropriate question tag

1. Hard work pays, doesn't it?
2. You can't go to secondary school if you don't work hard, can you?

3. Maria has many friends at school, hasn't she?
4. I am a good learner, aren't I?
5. You play football, don't you?
6. We did not make noise in class, did we?
7. John is the tallest boy in this class, isn't he?
8. We should have roaster, shouldn't we?
9. Mary is not a polite girl, is she?
10. You didn't close the door, did you?

EXERCISE C-
IDENTIFYING ADVERB CLAUSES OF CONDITION-
 (Learners book page 13)

Identify an adverb clause of condition in each of the following sentences and then state its function.

NOTE: adverb clause of condition starts with the following words: unless, if, whether, provided that, as long as.

1. You cannot pass examinations unless you work hard.
 Function: modifies the verb 'cannot pass'
2. We cannot get on the bus unless we pay fare.
 Function: modifies the verb 'cannot get'
3. They cannot sleep here, unless we know them.
 Function: modifies the verb 'cannot sleep'
4. I will not mark your work unless you tell me the reason for handing your work late
 Function: modifies the verb 'will not mark'
5. Unless John pays the bribe price in full, he will not be allowed to marry Jane.
 Function: modifies the verb 'will not be allowed'

WRITING SENTENCES IN THE SIMPLE FUTURE TENSE

(Learners book page 16)

Change the following sentences into simple future tense.

NOTE: Add 'will' before the base form of the verb

1. We eat nsima everyday.(We will eat nsima tomorrow)
2. John plays football every day. (john will play football tomorrow)
3. Dumisani goes to school every day. (Dumisani will go to school tomorrow)
4. Maureen writes news articles every day. (Maureen will write news articles tomorrow)
5. Mayamiko sweeps around her mother's house every day. (Mayamiko will sweep around her mother's house everyday)
6. The farmer feeds chickens everyday. (The farmer will feed the chickens tomorrow)

PARTS OF A SENTENCE.

Subject –verb –object (Learners book page 21)

1. You must read advertisements.
You =subject
Must read=verb
Advertisements=object
2. Mrs Wanga works in the hospital.
Mrs Wanga=subject
Works= verb
In the hospital=object
3. I will go for further studies.
I=subject
Will go=verb

- For further studies=object
4. Mr Wanga bought several trucks.
Mr wanga=subject
Bought =verb
Several trucks=object
 5. I will check the advertisement.
I=subject
Will check=verb
The advertisement=object
 6. I can go to a private school.
 7. I=subject
 8. Can go=verb
 9. To a a private school=object

EXERCISE C: CHANGING SENTENCES FROM SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE TO SIMPLE PAST
TENSE. (Learners book page 24 & 25)

NOTE: to form the past simple, we use the –ed form of the verb or the irregular form.

1. Edward lived at Kalema village.
2. In the past, Mr Soko, the farmer, grown fruits and vegetables.
3. I walked to school.
4. Alinafe danced better than Clara all the time.
5. My father liked football.
6. Many teachers stayed near their schools.
7. Mrs Jere, the nurse always looked after the elderly people well.
8. They often played against our school.
9. We usually wrote homework after the evening.
10. I saw him driving an expensive car

EXERCISE C- IDENTIFYING ADVERB CLAUSES-
(Learners book page 39-40)

1. If I had lots of money, I could buy a car.
Type: adverb clause of condition
Function: modifies the verb 'could buy'
2. I fell asleep as soon as the bus started.
Type: adverb clause of time.
Function: modifies the verb 'fell asleep'
3. I arrived late at home because I missed the bus.
Type: adverb clause of reason
Function : modifies the verb 'arrived'
4. He would be surprised if someone offered him money
Type: adverb clause of condition
Function: modifies the verb 'would be surprised'
5. Wherever you send me to go, I will go.
Type : adverb clause of place
Function: modifies the verb 'will go'
6. After I had travelled for six hours, I got off the bus.
Type : adverb clause of time
Function : modifies the verb 'got off'
7. When morning came, the owners of the house did not check the condition of the midnight visitor.
Type ;adverb clause of time
Function: modifies the verb 'did not check'
8. Hide the milk, where the cat will not find it.
Type :adverb clause of place
Function: modifies the verb 'hide'

EXERCISE C- CHANGING SENTENCES FROM PRESENT TENSE TO FUTURE TENSE. (Learners book page 44)

1. We go to the market every day.
We will go to the market tomorrow
2. They learn Life skills education at school.
They will learn Life skills education at school
3. They have netball practices on Friday.
They will have netball practices on Friday
4. You fail examinations if you do not work hard
You will fail examination if you do not work hard
5. You sleep outside if you do not come back in good time
You will sleep outside if you do not come back in good time
6. I go to Lilongwe everyday
I will go to Lilongwe tomorrow
7. You grow vegetables in your garden.
-You will grow vegetables in your garden
8. I take patients to the hospital
-I will take patients to the hospital
9. We open a school garden.
-We will open a school garden.

EXERCISE D- IDENTIFYING ADVERB CLAUSES

(Learners book page 45)

All the underlined sentences are adverb clauses except question 4

1. The visitors came when we were learning English.
Type: adverb clause of time
Function: modifies the verb 'came'

2. When the visitors arrived, the head teacher was in his office
 Type: adverb clause of time
 Function: modifies the verb 'was'
3. If you cough continuously, go to the hospital immediately.
 Type : adverb clause of condition
 Function :modifies the verb 'go'
4. This is why we are visiting all school in the district.
 Type :Noun clause
 Function: object of the verb 'is'
5. I found him where he was sleeping.
 Type: adverb clause of place
 Function : modifies the verb 'found'
6. Although his parents are rich, he is a polite boy
 Type: adverb clause of concession
 Function: modifies the verb 'is'
7. My father came late, because it was raining
 Type: adverb clause of reason
 Function : modifies the verb 'came'
8. You must solve this sum as I tell you.
 Type: adverb clause of manner
 Function :modifies the verb 'solve'
9. It was so hot that all the learners were sleeping
 Type :adverb clause of reason
 Function : modifies the verb 'was'
10. We are happy that you have come to school.
 Type: adverb clause of reason
 Function: modifies the verb 'are'

USING THE CONTINUOUS TENSE- EXERCISE C (Learners book page 48)

Mr Bunde is a good teacher. Whenever he is teaching English, his learners enjoy his lessons. Every time he is demonstrating any work to be done by his class, he makes sure every learner is watching. Then he gives his class a chance to practice. So while every learner is doing the task, Mr Bunde moves around to see who is playing.

EXERCISE D: IDENTIFYING VERBS IN THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS TENSE (Learners book page 51)

1. Vitumbiko is going to Blantyre by bus.
2. Vendors are advertising different things.
3. The bus conductor is selling tickets
4. The women are buying tomatoes.
5. The children are making a lot of noise
6. Mrs .Phiri is teaching Chichewa in Standard 7
7. We are writing a composition
8. Is the bus going very fast?
9. Are the girls playing football?
10. The villagers are chasing the thieves

EXERCISE D -COMPLETING A CLOSE PASSAGE (Learners book page 58)

Copy and complete the passage below with the continuous tense of the verb in the brackets. (Correct answers have been underlined)

Many people in Mwandama village (flocked) are flocking to the chief court.

As Mwandam (came) is coming out of his house,
many people have already come.

He(asked) is asking them to make offering to the spirits to their ancestors.

Mwandama (thought) is thinking that people in the village had done something that made their ancestors angry.

Mwandama looked at the girl. He (smiled) is smiling.
He (thought) is thinking the girls did not know what he was talking about.

EXERCISE C –IDENTIFYING NOUN CLAUSES (Learners book page 62)

Identify noun clauses in the following sentences. State the function of each of the clause.

NOTE: ALL the underlined sentences below are noun clauses

1. This is what I like to eat.
Function: complement of the verb 'is'
2. It seems that she has never done business before
Function: complement of the verb 'seems'
3. The truth of the matter is that we trust nobody during examinations
Function: complement of the verb 'is'
4. The fact of the matter is that we cannot succeed without working hard.
Function: complement of the verb 'is'
5. What I like in Sumani's story is that he was working hard

Function: complement of the verb 'is'

EXERCISE C: CHANGING SENTENCES FROM THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS TENSE TO THE FUTURE CONTINUOUS TENSE

(Lerner's book page 65)

Future continuous tense

1. We will be singing
2. John will be driving a car
3. Takondwa will be solving Mathematics
4. They will be making ridges
5. George will be looking for his lost pen
6. The soldiers will be marching
7. Mercy will be laughing
8. The learners will be cheering their team
9. The man will be feeding his little boy
10. I will be writing a letter to my teacher

EXERCISE D : IDENTIFYING NOUN CLAUSES

(Learners book page 81 and 82)

Copy the following sentences. in each sentence identify the noun clauses and state its function.

All the underlined sentences are noun clauses

1. The car was not sold for what it is worth.
Function: object of preposition 'for'
2. Can we depend on what she says?
Function: object of preposition 'on'
3. Your story differs from what we have already heard.

Function: object of preposition 'from'

4. I shall give a book to whoever asks for one

Function :object of preposition 'to'

5. They gazed at what they saw seriously

Function: object of preposition 'at'

6. The girl is listening to what you are saying

Function: object of preposition 'to'

EXERCISE D : CHANGING SENTENCES TO THE CONTINUOUS TENSE.

(Learners book page 86)

1. Many are dancing at the party.
2. He is cooking nsima now
3. They will be singing songs of praise
4. Chimwemwe is writing her homework
5. Very soon we will be leaving for Blantyre

EXERCISE B : IDENTIFYING AND STATING THE FUNCTIONS OF NOUN CLAUSES. (Page 89 and 90) learners book)

1. The news that the plane had crashed shocked everybody.
Function: noun clause in apposition to noun 'news'
2. It appears we will lose the game.
Function: complement of the verb 'appears'
3. This seems to be the pen he was talking about.
Function: complement of the verb 'seems'
4. The surprising thing is that we can't remember what happened

Function: complement of the verb 'is'

5. The rumour that she cheated in the examinations angered her.

Function: noun clause in apposition to noun 'rumour'

6. The sad thing is that the pilot was not identified.

Function: complement of the verb 'is'

EXERCISE E: IDENTIFYING NOUN CLAUSES

(Learners book page 96)

1. The rumour that she failed her examinations made her angry

Function: noun apposition to noun 'rumour'

2. The report that John was not attending classes annoyed his parents.

Function :noun clause in apposition to noun 'report'

3. The news that the car had a breakdown made Mr Phiri angry

Function: noun clause in apposition to noun 'news'

4. The report that our team was beaten disappointed us

Function: noun clause in apposition to noun 'report'

5. The information that Jane was selected to go to secondary school made her parents happy.

Function: noun clause in apposition to noun 'information'

EXERCISE D: IDENTIFYING ADJECTIVE CLAUSES

(Learners book page 101)

1. The students who got the prize is my friend.

Function: qualifies noun 'students'

2. The house which they are building is ours.

Function: qualifies noun 'house'

3. The teacher who teaches us is coming.

Function; qualifies noun 'teacher'

4. The car in which I was travelling to Lilongwe run out of fuel.

Function: qualifies noun 'car'

5. They went to the zoo which is the most famous in the country.

Function: qualifies noun 'zoo'

EXERCISE C : CHANGING SENTENCES FROM THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS TENSE TO PRESENT PERFECT TENSE.

(Learners book page 104)

NOTE: The formula for present perfect tense is (Has/Have+ past participle)

1. I have listened to your story with interest.
2. Tamanda has carried my suitcase to the railway station.
3. Grandmother has reminded us that that we had less than an hour to walk to the railway station.
4. The station master has apologized for the delay.
5. Grandmother has not told Aunt Rose about our delay

EXERCISE C: COMPLETING SENTENCES USING THE FUTURE PERFECT TENSE.

(Learners book page 124)

NOTE: Future perfect tense formula is : (Will have/Shall have+past participle)

1. By this time next week I shall have finished writing the examinations. (finish).
2. John will have not gone to school by this time tomorrow. (gone)
3. The head teacher will have announced the results of the test by this time tomorrow. (announce)
4. The candidate will have not studied enough if you make them write the examinations in one week's time.(not study)
5. I shall have written application letter by this time on Friday.(write)

EXERCISE D: CHANGING SENTENCES TO THE PAST PERFECT PERFECT TENSE. (Learners book page 128)

NOTE : The formula for past perfect tense is : Had+Past participle

1. By the time Chifuniro wrote her homework, her uncle had already bathed.
2. By the time Anthony washed his clothes, his brother had already worked in the garden.
3. By the time the head teacher had spoken during the assembly, some learners made noise
4. By the time Annie arrived at the depot, the bus had already started off to Ntchisi
5. By the time James watched television, Victoria had already entered the room

EXERCISE C: IDENTIFYING NOUN CLAUSES

(Learners book page 140)

1. That he is a thief I am aware.

Function: subject of the verb 'am'

2. This is where I found my book.

Function: subject of the verb 'found'

3. This is the gift my father gave me.

Function :subject of the verb 'gave'

4. The dog followed him wherever he went

Adverb clause modifies the verb 'followed'

5. We will come if you invite us to your wedding.

Adverb clause modifies the verb 'will come'

6. When I am ill I go to the hospital.

Adverb clause modifies the verb 'go'

7. I know that you went to the market yesterday

Noun clause object of the verb 'know'

8. Maria passed the examinations because she worked hard

Adverb clause modifies the verb 'passed'

9. I showed him the house where I was born.

Adverb clause modifies the verb 'showed'

10. Hannah speaks as if she is a village head.

Adverb clause modifies the verb 'speaks'

PRINTED BY : REJOICE PRINTING –BEMBEKE
WRITTEN BY : MISHECK BAMBI-0995 910 418